

National Taiwan Normal University

Regulations for for the Establishment of the Anhui Association Scholarship

Amended by the Scholarship Committee on December 24th, 2013

1. Origin:

The scholarship is established by the Anhui Association for students whose ancestral home is Anhui Province of China.

2. Students of National Taiwan Normal University whose ancestral home is Anhui Province of China are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

3. The Quota of Scholarship and the Amount of the Scholarship.

(1) The tentative amount of scholarship fund is 80,000 NT dollars. National Taiwan Normal University is entrusted with scholarship safekeeping and distribution.

(2) The amount of the scholarship depends on the interest of the scholarship fund of the year. The quota of scholarship for each year is one. Eligible students may apply for the scholarship.

4. Eligibility

(1) Students whose ancestral home is Anhui Province of China.

(2) Applicants must have an average score of at least 80

(3) If there are multiple applicants, the applicant with the highest score is the recipient.

5. Fund Management

(1) The Scholarship Committee is responsible for the management of the scholarship fund. The scholarship is covered by the scholarship fund and the interest.

(2) The Division of Student Assistance has the right to adjust the amount of the scholarship if necessary.

6. The regulations has taken effect since 1986.

7. The Regulations and the amendments shall be approved by the Scholarship Committee and take effect upon approval of the President.