Regulations for the Establishment of the Chang Chung-Liang Scholarship

Last amended on December 24, 2013

1. Purpose: Ms. Chou Chih-chi donated NT$400,000 to establish the Chang Chung-Liang Scholarship (“the Scholarship”) in memory of her late husband, former University President Chang Chung-Liang, with the aim of encouraging students at the University to cultivate moral character and pursue academic excellence. She entrusted the University’s Scholarship Management Committee (“the Committee”) with the administration of the Scholarship on her behalf.
2. Target Recipients: This Scholarship shall be awarded to currently enrolled students at the University who demonstrate outstanding academic performance and conduct, and who have not received any other scholarships during the same academic year.
3. Quota and Amount:
 - (1) The number of scholarship recipients shall be one student per college each academic year. The number of recipients may be adjusted based on the amount of interest income generated during the year.
 - (2) The scholarship amount shall be determined based on the interest income generated from the fund and is tentatively set at NT$4,000 per recipient.
4. Eligibility and Criteria:
 - (1) Undergraduate students at the University.
 - (2) The applicant’s overall academic average for the previous academic year shall be 85 or above, with a physical education grade of 70 or above.
5. Application Period and Procedure: Students who meet the eligibility requirements set forth in these Regulations shall submit the following documents to the Committee within the announced application period.
 - (1) One application form.
 - (2) One photocopy of the student ID card.
 - (3) One copy of the transcript for the previous academic year.
 - (4) Proof of non-receipt of other scholarships.
6. Fund Custody and Utilization:
 - (1) The University’s Scholarship Management Committee shall be the custodian of this Scholarship. Both the principal and accrued interest of the fund shall be used for scholarship purposes (or, alternatively, only the accrued interest shall be used for such purposes).
 - (2) The Scholarship amount may be adjusted by the Division of Student Services when deemed necessary.
7. These Regulations and any amendments thereto become effective after approval by the Scholarship Management Committee and ratification by the University President.
