

National Taiwan Normal University

Directives for the Establishment of the Cheng Hao-fang & Fang Chin-Yi Filial Piety Scholarship

Approved at the 11th Student Affairs Office Meeting in 2019-2020 academic year on July 13, 2020

1. Purpose:

Ms. Cheng Hao-fang and her son Fang Chin-Yi, a professor at the University, have set up the Cheng Hao-fang & Fang Chin-Yi Filial Piety Scholarship (the “Scholarship”) to help financially disadvantaged students who are filial to study with peace of mind and work hard for their future. These Establishment Directives are promulgated for the purpose of this Scholarship.

2. Target recipients: Students enrolled in the University.

3. Number and amount: 2 students shall be awarded per academic year, each with NT$10,000.

4. Eligibility:

- (1) Enrolled students whose family is financially disadvantaged or has suffered from unexpected misfortune in the past year, and who have demonstrated acts of filial piety.
- (2) Students whose is GPA 3.0 or higher in the previous academic year.

5. Application time and procedure:

The application for the Scholarship is processed in the first semester of each academic year. Students shall submit the application to the Student Services Division of the Office of Student Affairs by attaching the following documents within the announced period.

- (1) Application form (including a study plan with a brief description of family situation, acts of filial piety, and future career plans).
- (2) Proof of eligibility documents, e.g., proof of low-income households or low-middle-income households, proof of poverty or unexpected family misfortune.
- (3) Academic transcript of the previous semester.

6. The list of recipients shall be provided to the donor for reference. A copy of recipient reflection shall be submitted before the end of the awarding semester.

7. Review procedure: The Student Services Division of the Office of Student Affairs and the donor shall jointly review and approve the recipients of the Scholarship.

8. These Guidelines and any amendments thereto shall become effective after consent of the donor and approval by the Student Affairs Office Meeting.