

National Taiwan Normal University

Regulations for the Establishment of the Ruihe Scholarship

Last amended on February 7, 2017

1. Purpose: The Regulations for the Establishment of the Ruihe Scholarship (the “Regulations”) are formulated to support students from economically disadvantaged families at the University, enabling them to pursue their studies with peace of mind and strive for academic excellence, while fostering a commitment to giving back to society in the future.
2. Target Recipients: Economically disadvantaged students currently enrolled at the University.
3. Quota and Amount:
 - (1) Two to three recipients are awarded each semester, each receiving NT$11,000.
 - (2) The principal of the fund shall be used for the scholarship.
4. Eligibility:
 - (1) Students who are from economically disadvantaged families or experiencing sudden changes in family circumstances.
 - (2) Students whose GPA is 2.93 or higher in the previous semester.
5. Application Period and Procedure:

Applications for this scholarship are accepted once per semester. Applicants shall submit the following documents to the Division of Student Services, Office of Student Affairs, by the announced deadline:

 - (1) Application form.
 - (2) A photocopy of both sides of the student ID card (must be stamped with the current semester’s registration seal), along with proof of eligibility documentation (e.g., proof of low-income household, middle-to-low-income household, financial hardship, or sudden change in family circumstances).
 - (3) The original transcript from the previous semester.
 - (4) One learning plan (briefly describing family situation, scholarship utilization plan, and future career plans).
6. The list of scholarship recipients shall be provided to the donor for reference.
7. Review Procedure: The Division of Student Services, Office of Student Affairs, shall review the applications based on the students’ family circumstances and publicly announce the list of recipients.
8. These Regulations and any amendments thereto shall be promulgated by the Division of Student Services upon obtaining the donor’s consent and shall take effect upon promulgation.