

National Taiwan Normal University

Regulations for the Establishment of the Prof. Li Fu-Tong and Chien Ping Memorial Scholarship

Approved by the Scholarship Committee on December 24th, 2013

1. Origin:

Li Fu-Tong, Professor of Department of History, National Taiwan Normal University, who served as the Chair of History Department and the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, was known for his dedication to the research on history of Liao, Chin, and Yuen Dynasties and the history of border states. Professor Li was recognized for his remarkable academic achievements; Chien Ping, the wife of Prof. Li, who served in the Department of Education and Educational Psychology and Counseling. Professor Chien was recognized for her contribution to the research on educational psychology and mental health promotion. Two professors have dedicated themselves to the service in National Taiwan Normal University over thirty years. They were revered and loved by the colleagues and students. After their passing, the family members made donation of 1,000,000 NT dollars to establish a scholarship fund, providing the interest to set up scholarships for student to further their education.

2. The Amount of the Scholarship Fund:

The tentative amount of scholarship fund is 1,000,000 NT dollars.

3. Examination Committee:

The Examination Committee consists of 7-11 members. (including one family members) The members of the Committee are designated by the President, selected from the faculty of the Department of History, the Department of Education, and the Department of Educational Psychology and Counseling. The term for the office of the Committee member is two years. The Committee members are non-paid positions.

4. The Quota and the Amount of Scholarship

(1) The Quota for Undergraduate Students:

2 for the Department of Education

2 for the Department of Educational Psychology and Counseling

4 for the Department of History

Each recipient will receive 5,000 NT dollars every academic year.

(2) The Quota for Graduate Student:

1 for the Institute of Counseling

1 for the Institute of History

Each recipient will receive 6,000-10,000 NT dollar per academic year. (the amount depends on the interest of the year)

5. Eligibility

(1) The quota for the Department of Educational Psychology and Counseling is two: one sophomore student and one junior student. The applicants must have average scores of at least 80, scores of at least 75 in PE subject, and outstanding performance in Psychology in the preceding academic year.

(2) The quota for the Institute of Counseling is one. The applicant must be a sophomore student who have average scores of at least 80 and outstanding performance in Individual Study in Mental Health in the preceding academic year.

- (3) The quota for the Department of Education is two. The applicants must have average scores of at least 80 and outstanding performance in Educational Psychology in the preceding academic year.
- (4) The quota for the Department of History is four, including two students whose scores of History of Liao, Chin, and Yuen Dynasties and the history of border states rank first and second in the preceding academic year, and two students whose scores of Language and Literature of Border States rank first and second in the preceding semester. (if the department and the institute do not offer the three courses, the application will open to students who enroll in Ancient History of China. The criteria will be the average grades of the applicants. Four applicants are limited to sophomore and junior students. (quota of two for each grade level)
- (5) The quota for the Institute of History is one. (not limited to any grade) Students who have presented dissertations on the history of Liao, Chin, and Yuen Dynasties or the history of border states have priorities to apply for the scholarship. If there is no dissertation presented, students whose scores of History of Liao, Chin, and Yuen Dynasties and the History of Border States rank first have priority to apply for the scholarship.

6. Application Dates and Process

The applicant shall submit application form, transcript, or two copies of a dissertation to the office of the department of the institute. The scholarship application is open in October once a year. The scholarship is given out in December.

7. Examination Process

The applications will be examined by departments and institutes based on the quota. The result will be reported to the Examination Committee and the recipients will be decided accordingly. The final decision shall be made by the Scholarship Committee; application filed with dissertations will be examined by designated professors. The result will be reported to the Examination Committee and the recipients will be decided accordingly. The final decision shall be made by the Scholarship Committee.

8. Management

- (1) National Taiwan Normal University is responsible for the management of the scholarship fund.
 - (2) In accordance with Regulations for National Taiwan Normal University Donation Acceptance for Scholarship Establishment amended at 167th Administrative Meeting on November 6th, 1985, the Scholarship Committee shall not use the principal of the fund. The scholarship is covered by the interest (60,000 NT dollars at most). The remaining money will be deposited in the fund account.
9. The regulations are approved by the Examination Committee and reported to the Scholarship Committee for reference. The regulations have taken effect since 1986-1987 academic year. Matters not mentioned herein shall be formulated by the Examination Committee and be reported to the Scholarship Committee for reference.