Regulations for the Establishment of the NTNU San Diego Alumni Association Scholarship

Last amended on December 27, 2017

1. Purpose: This scholarship was established through collective donations from Alumni Association President Chen Chong-Maw and fellow alumni of the NTNU San Diego Alumni Association, who entrusted the NTNU Alumni Center with its administration. On the occasion of NTNU's 60th anniversary celebration, the alumni expressed their gratitude for their alma mater's nurturing by establishing this scholarship to encourage students to pursue their studies diligently and strive for academic excellence.
2. Target Recipients and Quota:
Undergraduate students enrolled at the University who come from economically disadvantaged families and have demonstrated excellence in both academic performance and conduct. Each academic year, one to three recipients shall be selected, with the number of recipients determined according to the amount of interest income generated from the fund.
3. Amount: NT$15,000 per recipient.
4. Eligibility and Criteria:
 - (1) Priority shall be given to economically disadvantaged undergraduate students at the University who have not received any other scholarships during the current academic year.
 - (2) The applicant's overall academic average for the previous academic year shall be 80 or above, with a physical education grade of 70 or above.
5. Application Period and Procedure:
Applications are accepted once each academic year. Students applying for this scholarship shall submit the following documents to the Division of Student Services, Office of Student Affairs, within two weeks of the date of the scholarship announcement.
 - (1) One application form.
 - (2) One photocopy of student ID card.
 - (3) One copy of the transcript for the previous academic year.
 - (4) Proof of low-income household, middle-to-low-income household, or financial hardship.
6. Review Committee and Procedure:
 - (1) This scholarship shall be reviewed by the Scholarship Management Committee.
 - (2) The Division of Student Services shall be responsible for issuing announcements and conducting the review process each May.
 - (3) The Division of Student Services shall announce the list of recipients in June and arrange for the scholarship awarding.
7. Fund Custody and Utilization:
 - (1) The principal of this scholarship, amounting to approximately NT$500,000, shall be under the custody of the University's Scholarship Management Committee. The principal shall be maintained at no less than NT$500,000 and remain untouched. The scholarship shall be disbursed using both the principal and accrued interest.
 - (2) The NTNU San Diego Alumni Association will regularly contribute additional funds to the principal of the scholarship fund and gradually increase the number of scholarship recipients each year. The University may make appropriate adjustments to the number of recipients as needed. After the annual scholarship award ceremony, the University shall provide the Alumni Association with the list of recipients and a statement of the fund account.
7. These Regulations and any amendments thereto become effective after approval by the Scholarship Management Committee and ratification by the University President.
