

National Taiwan Normal University

Directives for the Establishment of the Teng Chuan-hsin Scholarship for Financially Disadvantaged Students

Last amended on August 28, 2019

1. Purpose: Mr. Teng Chuan-hsin, in order to give back to society, support and encourage younger generations, and cultivate future talent, has established the Teng Chuan-hsin Scholarship for Financially Disadvantaged Students to recognize and assist financially disadvantaged students of the University in their diligent pursuit of academic study, so that they may contribute to society in the future.
2. Target Recipients: Enrolled full-time students of the University who are economically disadvantaged or have experienced sudden changes in family circumstances.
3. Quota and Amount: Ten recipients are awarded each semester, with each receiving NT$30,000. The number of awards may be adjusted based on the number of applications and the annual cash dividend income.
4. Eligibility and Criteria:
 - (1) Currently enrolled students from low-income households or middle-to-low-income households, or students who are financially disadvantaged or experiencing sudden changes in family circumstances.
 - (2) Applicants must have a GPA of 2.43 or above in the previous semester (70 points on the numerical grading system), or be ranked within the top 50% of their class in their department or graduate institute.
 - (3) Award recipients are required to submit a learning reflection essay by the end of the current semester.
 - (4) The list of scholarship recipients shall be provided to the donor for reference.
5. Application Period:

Applications are accepted once per semester. Applicants shall submit the following documents to the Student Services Division of the Office of Student Affairs by the announced deadline:

 - (1) Application form.
 - (2) Proof of eligibility documents, e.g., proof of low-income households, middle-to-low-income households, proof of financial disadvantage or sudden change in family circumstances.
 - (3) Academic transcript for the previous semester.
 - (4) One learning plan (briefly describing family background, academic performance, and future career plans).
6. Review Process: The Student Services Division of the Office of Student Affairs shall give priority to applicants based on the following criteria: greater financial need, lower year of study, and absence of other scholarships or grants.
7. Fund Utilization: This scholarship fund is designated for specific use only, with annual stock cash dividends and sustainable fund reserves serving as the source of scholarship funding.
8. These Directives and any amendments thereto become effective after approval by the Office of Student Affairs Council meeting and ratification by the University President.