Approved at the 14th Office of Student Affairs Council Meeting of the 2010/11 Academic Year on November 17, 2010

- Article 1 Purpose: This scholarship is established through annual donations from the Taipei Gongguan Presbyterian Church to encourage economically disadvantaged students of the University to strive for excellence and pursue their studies with peace of mind.
- Article 2 Target Recipients: Economically disadvantaged students currently enrolled at the University.
- Article 3 Number and Amount: Each academic year, the scholarship shall be awarded to three undergraduate students and one master's student, each receiving NT$10,000.
- Article 4 Eligibility and Criteria:
1. Students who are from economically disadvantaged families or experiencing sudden changes in family circumstances.
 2. Students whose GPA in the previous academic year is 3.38 or higher.
 3. Priority shall be given to students enrolled in departments or graduate institutes on the University's Gongguan Campus.
- Article 5 Application Period and Procedure:
- Applications for this scholarship are accepted once each academic year during the second semester. Applicants shall submit the following documents:
1. Proof of eligibility documents, e.g., proof of low-income households, middle-to-low-income households, proof of financial hardship or sudden change in family circumstances.
 2. Autobiography (brief description of family background and study plans).
 3. A photocopy of the household registration certificate or a household registration transcript issued within the past three months.
 4. Scholarship recipients shall submit a learning reflection report.
- Article 6 Review Procedure: The Office of Student Affairs shall establish a scholarship review panel to evaluate applications and announce the review results.
- Article 7 The list of scholarship recipients shall be provided to the donor for reference.
- Article 8 These Regulations and any amendments shall become effective after consent of the donor, approval at the Office of Student Affairs Council Meeting, and ratification by the University President.
