

National Taiwan Normal University

Regulations for the Establishment of the Cheng Ji-Shu Scholarship for Economically Disadvantaged Students

Approved at the Scholarship Management Committee Meeting for the 2014-2015 Academic Year on December 8, 2014

1. Purpose

The Regulations for the Establishment of the Cheng Ji-Shu Scholarship for Economically Disadvantaged Students (“the Regulations”) are formulated in memory of Ms. Cheng Ji-shu, the mother of Ms. Liang Wen-qiang, daughter of Professor Liang Shi-chiu, to encourage and support economically disadvantaged students at the University in pursuing their studies. The fund required for this scholarship was donated by Ms. Liang Wen-qiang in the amount of NT$1,574,437 and shall be used to support applications from economically disadvantaged undergraduate students currently enrolled at the University.

2. Target Recipients:

Economically disadvantaged undergraduate students currently enrolled at the University.

3. Quota and Amount:

Each recipient shall receive NT$6,000. The number of recipients is determined by the annual interest income generated by the scholarship fund, which shall be distributed annually to recipients.

4. Eligibility and Criteria:

- (1) Students from low-income households or economically disadvantaged families enrolled in the University’s various departments.
- (2) Students from low-income households shall be given priority, followed by students who hold a certificate of financial hardship.
- (3) Students recommended by their adviser or who provide a service certificate from the most recent semester.
- (4) The list of scholarship recipients shall be provided to the donor for reference.

5. Application Period and Procedure:

- (1) Application Period: Applications for this scholarship are accepted once each academic year, with the application period scheduled for December.
- (2) Applicants shall submit the application form along with supporting documents verifying their eligibility in accordance with the annual scholarship announcement.

6. Review Committee and Procedure:

The Division of Student Services shall determine scholarship recipients based on a review of the applicants’ family circumstances.

7. Fund Custody and Utilization:

- (1) The Scholarship Management Committee shall be the custodian of the fund for this scholarship, where the income from interest is used for the awarding of the scholarship.
- (2) The scholarship amount may be adjusted by the donor when deemed necessary.

8. These Regulations and any amendments thereto shall be submitted to the University’s Scholarship Management Committee for approval and recordation and take effect after ratification by the University President.