

National Taiwan Normal University

Regulations for the Establishment of the Wu Cheng Hong-Tao Memorial Scholarship

Approved at the Scholarship Management Committee Meeting for the 2013-2014 Academic Year on December 24, 2013

1. Origin:

Mrs. Wu Cheng Hong-Tao founded Wu Cheng Hong-Tao Scholarship Program in the Division of Student Life in 2008. Mrs. Wu made donations every year to help students who had lost parents and lived in poverty to complete the education. In 2013, Mrs. Wu Cheng Hong-Tao passed away, leaving her children to carry on her act of kindness. In memory of Mrs. Wu, her children donate 1,200,000 to the school to found Wu Cheng Hong-Tao Memorial Scholarship Program.

2. Student of NTNU are eligible to apply for the scholarship. Undergraduate students have priority.

3. The Quota the Amount of Scholarship

The quota of scholarship is 20 students per year. Each recipient will receive 5,000 NT dollars scholarship. The scholarship is covered by the scholarship fund and the interest.

4. Eligibility

(1) Students who lost parents or students who live in poverty. Undergraduate students have priority to receive the scholarship.

(2) If the number of applicants exceed the quota, a set of priority will be established based on the need of applicants.

5. Application Dates and Process

Dates: The scholarship is open for application per academic year, from May 1st to May 31st.

Process: Eligible applicants shall submit application forms with certificates.

Article 6 Examiner and the Examination Process

The Division of Student Assistance will examine the application based on the family background.

7. Funds Management

(1) The Scholarship Committee is responsible for the management of the scholarship fund. The scholarship money is covered by the fund and the interest.

(2) The donors may adjust the amount of the scholarship if necessary.

8. The regulations and the amendments shall be approved after the discussion with the donors and reported to the Scholarship Committee for reference. The regulations and the amendments shall take effect upon approval of the President.